Re: Infringing Commentary Flying Across Conference Wireless

Dear Participant:

I am a copyright lawyer for Consumers Finding Peace through direct marketing (“CFPtdm”) and am authorized to act on its behalf. You are hereby informed that the providers of wireless networking at this conference have been served a cease and desist letter pursuant to Title 17, United States Code, section 512(c)(3)(A) of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act. The network traffic, particularly the blogging, is clearly infringing upon the copyright of CFPtdm through innumerable acts of commentary, irreverence, and general free speech. My clients are also dismayed that you are forwarding some of their specially targeted email messages to spam folders, thereby making unauthorized reproductions of my clients’ copyrighted works.

See your email folder and <<http://www.cfp2004.org/blogs/>> for evidence of the copyright violations.

You may contact me at any time at the above listed address, or via phone at 415-555-1212 or via e-mail at spoof@chillingeffects.org.

CFPtdm has a good faith belief that use of the material complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent or the law.

I hereby sort of declare under penalty of perjury that the information in this notice is mostly accurate and that I seem to be authorized to act on behalf of the copyright owner, CFPtdm and its affiliate marketers.

We look forward to your attendance at the Chilling Effects “Cease and Desist” presentation on Friday, April 23, 2004, at 1:30 p.m.
to find out more about how you can comply with these demands and save your conference organizers from reliance upon the DMCA

Very truly yours,

J. Spamford Smith
